DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-14 and 17, drawn to a method of depositing compounds on a substrate by means of a metal organic gas phase deposition.

Group II, claim(s) 15 and 16, drawn to a MOCVD apparatus for gas phase deposition.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: In the instant application, the inventions contain a common theme of separately feeding different mixtures into a MOCVD apparatus via separate inlets. According to US 6245144 B1, it was known at the time of the invention to introduce separate mixtures into a MOCVD apparatus utilizing separate inlets; and therefore, the instant application lacks unity.
3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows. If applicant elects invention 1, applicant is advised to select one of Species 1 (a-c):

Species 1a: A method of depositing a compound on a substrate whereby at least one Group II compound is selected as the metal organic.

Species 1b: A method of depositing a compound on a substrate whereby at least one Group III compound is selected as the metal organic.

Species 1c: A method of depositing a compound on a substrate whereby at least one Group IV compound is selected as the metal organic.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species 1a corresponds to claims 2-4, Species 1b corresponds to claims 5 and 6, and Species 1c corresponds to claims 7 and 8.

The following claim(s) is generic: 1.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: In the instant application, the inventions contain a common theme of introducing a mixture that contains a metal organic. According to US 6245144 B1, it was known at the time of the invention for a gas mixture in a MOCVD process to contain a metal organic; and thus, the instant application lacks unity.

6. A telephone call was made to Johnathan Myers, Esq. on March 25, 2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
